SURPRISE FRIENDS

Mr. Kenney DeHaven and Miss Elizabeth Perry Quietly Married

Ceremony Took Place at the Home of the Bride's Parents.

The many friends of Mr. Kenney N. DeHaven and Miss Elizabeth Jean Perry were given a pleasant surprise Friday afternoon when it became known they had been quietly united in marriage at the beautiful country home of the bride's parents in this county. The home was artistically decorated for the occasion which was a very quiet but beautiful affair, the ceremony being performed by Rev. H. D. Clark in his inimitable manner. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left on a short bridal tour after which they will be at home in the McKee apartment on Bank street.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Perry and is one of the most charming and attractive girls ever reared in this county with a gracious manner and winning disposition she has endeared herself to countless friends.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. DeHaven and is an energetic and popular business man possessing a genial personality and splendid character which have made him very popular with a host of acquaintances. He has been connected with the local post-office for the past few years and is quite a favorite with the public.

That their beautiful young lives may long be linked together with a golden chord of love is the hearty wish of the Advocate.

Business Men's Club Adjourn Meeting.

The regular meeting of the business men's club held Monday night was adjourned over until next week as many members wished to attend the Willey lecture at the Christian Church. The meeting will be called for some time next week by the President.

At the next meeting officers for the ensuing year will be elected and it is hoped that a good crowd will be present. There is also a proposition from a manufacturing concern that desires to locate here to be considered.

New Ice Company Committee Makes Report.

Messrs. E. T. Hon and A. Dietz a committee appointed by the stockholders of the proposed new ice plant in this city went to Louisville last week and inspected several plants in that city. Including the cost of machinery, works, grounds etc., the plant is estimated to cost $22,500.00.

As soon as $14,000.00 worth of stock is sold an expert will be secured to draw the plans etc. Those in charge of the proposed enterprise are confident of its success.

It's mighty easy for a statesman on the hills to forget that he was once a citizen of the valley.

Mrs. Myron Park Davis died at her home in Meadville, Pa., August 31, 1913. She had many relatives in Kentucky, particularly in Bath and Montgomery counties, being a sister of Mr. C. W. Nesbitt, of this city, and was a lovely Christian woman.

CIRCUIT COURT

Began September Term in This City Monday Morning.

Judge Andrew J. Kirk, of Paintsville, Presiding.

The regular September term of the Montgomery Circuit Court began in this city Monday morning with Judge Andrew J. Kirk, of Paintsville, presiding, as Judge Allie W. Young, the regular Judge, owing to illness, was unable to be present. Judge Kirk had Sheriff W. F. Crooks open court in formal manner as follows:

"O Zez, O Yez, The Honorable Judge is now about to convene the Montgomery Circuit Court. All you that have pleas to enter or defenses to make will draw near and you shall be heard. You will now preserve order. God save the Commonwealth and this Honorable Court."

This is the first time that Circuit Court has been opened in this manner, and the services were very impressive.

Among the cases tried so far are the following: Perry Oakley fined $50 and 10 days in jail for carrying concealed weapon; John Burbridge, colored, found guilty of malicious cutting; Willie Spurlock, guilty of contempt of court, $100.

The case of Mrs. Addie Kelly, Admr., vs. C. & O. R'y., etc., is set for Monday, September 8th.

Lagoon.

Crowds continue to throng the Lagoon, the Kentucky resort opposite Cincinnati where new devices for the entertainment of the public are added weekly. Of course the Motordrome races are the greatest magnet, so much so that they will be continued every Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday until November.

The strictly summer amusements, fishing, boating, rides on the Automobile Aerial Road, Scenic Railway and the new Lagoon Limited offer an irresistible appeal to pleasure seekers at this popular park where it is sheltered from the burning rays of the sun by the natural forest trees and fills a position all its own in pleasing amusements. Dancing on a perfect floor made of the heart of pine is one of the manifold features of the park, which is nature's own playground.

The big free attraction is Daredevil Volo leaping a double gap through hoops of fire. Starting twenty-eight feet in the air on a bicycle and making a flight of 170 feet, leaping two distinct gaps, one nine feet and the other fourteen feet wide.

Without wishing to dissipate tradition, it may be said that a good many chorus girls care more for dogs than they do for men or other lobsters.

Kentucky Pooling

Statute Attacked.

The fate of tobacco pooling associations as well as other farmers' organizations, organized to get better prices, will come before the Supreme Court at Washington in October, when an attack will be made upon the constitutionality of the Kentucky statute legalizing tobacco pooling organizations. It also is claimed to be in conflict with the Sherman anti-trust law.

The joint tobacco commission of Congress, investigating the effect of foreign governmental purchases of American tobacco, is considering a proposal to recommend to Virginia and Carolina tobacco growers the formation of pooling organizations similar to those in Kentucky as the only method of getting a living price out of their tobacco crop. Should the Supreme Court annul the Kentucky statute, the pooling idea might not be available to the Virginia and Carolina growers.

The exact status of tobacco pooling organizations has never been before the Supreme Court. It is said that the decision in the case will apply equally to all farmers' alliances formed to get better prices.

Who Pays Taxes To Keep This Town Going?

By HOLLAND.

WHEN a new bridge is needed, a road must be repaired, a courthouse is to be built, where does the money come from? Do the mill order houses pay it? Hardly. They will not even send a contribution to help buy a bell for the new church or to help a Fourth of July celebration. They pay no taxes in this town, and they are not concerned in its prosperity.

This town must be supported by its residents and those who live in the immediate vicinity. If they insist on sending their money away then they are helping to kill their town, and they are making it harder for them to pay the taxes necessary to maintain local government and to make local improvements.

You owe something to yourself, and you owe something to your neighbors. You can help yourself by helping your neighbors. You can't injure your neighbors without injuring yourself. When you send money to mill order houses you are hurting your town, your neighbors and yourself.

SPEND YOUR MONEY WHERE YOU MAKE IT.

To Teachers. Why Experiment?

If you need medical advice would you consult some young student who had passed an examination in anatomy and hygiene, but who was ignorant of hospital methods, who had never followed a pathological case from diagnosis to convalescence? Would you permit such a novice to experiment upon you? And yet are you willing, as a teacher, to experiment upon the pupils whom you are to guide? Do you know how to systematize your work, have you correct methods of teaching, do you understand child Psychology?

Whatever your status as a teacher, the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School will make you a much better teacher. You will be trained under the best professional talent, you will observe the most up-to-date and approved methods of teaching, you will do considerable practice teaching under expert supervision.

In addition to the regular course of instruction, unexcelled opportunities are offered all students to take special subjects, such as home economics, manual training, physical culture, expression, scientific farming and others.

Tuition is free, the charge for board and room is insignificant, the school buildings are splendid, the campus is most beautiful, in fact, all conditions are ideal for the ambitious teacher.

The Missing Ingredient.

"The building of good roads is vitally a question of proper construction. The building of wagon roads is an engineering problem just as much as the building of a railroad. It involves all the elements of the latter. A good road must be properly located, it must be well constructed, it must be maintained. The first element of a good road is a good foundation, then proper construction; then the road must have sufficient crown to carry off the water to the side ditches. The surface should be made as impervious as the materials at hand will permit in order that it may shed the water. The surface has been called the roof of the road. It must be properly drained by ditches at the sides. These are problems which require the services of supervision or advice of expert engineers. A railroad would not permit a crowd of farmers to lay its grade or build its line. The building of a road involves the same engineering problems. Happily, however, the era of inefficiency is past and the era of efficiency of good roads has arrived."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

At the legislative session of 1912 Kentucky gave recognition to these facts by creating a good roads bureau. It deprived the bureau of its largest opportunity for effective service by failing to vote State aid for good roads. However, the machinery necessary to road construction and maintenance on scientific lines is now here. State aid is alone needed to set it in motion. With State aid there will not only be a beginning of road building in every county in the State, but the roads built will be of a uniform standard of excellence.

For the first time since the early part of the Nineteenth century, when the State aid plan was followed in the Bluegrass, the people of Kentucky are in a position to secure good roads in return for the money expended, provided State aid is voted. In the interim they have been forced to sit by while the money raised by local taxation was expended in the form of a mud tax.

They are to vote this fall on a Constitutional amendment to authorize the use of convict labor in building of public roads, a form of labor that has been proved cheap and efficient in the dozen or more States in which it is employed. With convict labor, with State aid, with the standard of road construction and maintenance uniform in every county, there is nothing that could stand between the people of Kentucky and good roads save the refusal of the Governor and the General Assembly to grant such aid. It is up to the press and the people of Kentucky to convince their representatives that such refusal will not be good politics. —Louisville Times.

The Wonderful Etawah
To Trot At Lexington.

Etawah, the most discussed 3 year-old trotter of 1913, will be put to the supreme test on Tuesday, October 7, the second day of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association's forty-first annual race meeting at Lexington. Etawah is going to start in the 3-year-old division of the $21,000 Kentucky Futurity which is to be decided on that day, and which for twenty years has been regarded throughout the world as the three-year-old trotting championship race.

Etawah is a truly wonderful race horse, and there is justification for the expectation of many close observers of the sport that he may lower the world's record of 2:04 1/2 for trotters of his age made at Lexington by Colorado E., October 15, 1910. Etawah is a small bay colt not quite 15 hands, with sound legs and almost sightless eyes, but with a wonderfully smooth way of going. In a word, he is something decidedly out of the ordinary—a horse that every trotting devotee wants to see.

He is by Al Stanley 2:08 1/2, dam Alicia Arion, a mare that had no record but could trot a mile around 2:16. Bred by J. D. Hooper at Murfreesboro, Tenn., he was broken and trained from the time he was a yearling by Ben Whitehead, and first came into notice on the half mile tracks last spring. Whitehead won the three-year-old trotting sweepstakes at North Randall with him, and after he had won the race in 2:10 1/2 and 2:09 1/2, defeating Peter Johnston, Sweet Alice and other stars, Frank G. Jones, the wealthy Memphis sportsman, bought him and put him in the string of the veteran Edward F. Gears. Driven by Mr. Gears he won the Horseman Futurity at Kalamazoo, Mich., in 2:08 1/2, 2:08 1/2 and 2:09 1/2, the fastest three heats ever trotted by a three-year-old. At Detroit Mr. Gears started him against the aged horses Densmore, Echomore, Fan Patch, Lady Gratian and Baron Penn, and he defeated them in 2:07 1/2, 2:08 1/2, 2:08 1/2, still further lowering the world's three heat record for three-year-old trotters.

However, as good as he is, it is not a certainty that he will win the great Kentucky Futurity, for there are over 60 eligibles to that race, and out of that number it is to be expected there will be several colts with excellent chances of success, though they now be virtually unknown quantities.

has shown that a writing paper need not be expensive to be in perfect taste. A great deal less would be heard about "The Lost Art of Letter Writing" if more people realized the value of distinctive stationery. A letter on poor paper is an injustice to its author, but a good paper is in itself a splendid start to a letter.

Now that Highland Linen is available no one need experience the unpleasant sensation of sending a letter that is unworthy. A call at our office today will enable you to enjoy the luxury of making your next letter a well-appearing messenger that will represent you properly.

VOTE YES.

At the November election every voter of Montgomery county will be called upon to answer the following question: "Are you in favor of the Fiscal Court of the county being composed of three commissioners to be elected from the county at large and the judge of the county court?"

If you are tired of seeing over four thousand dollars annually drawn from your county treasury for alleged pauper expenditures, when other counties as large or larger than our own, expend less than one-tenth of that sum for the same purpose; if you do not longer want your turnpike funds wasted by permitting the little work that is done to be done in an unskillful manner, teams to stand in the shade, and the like, and if you now want a "run for your tax money," then discharge your duty as a citizen by voting "YES" on the above proposition.

Miss Annie Bock, until recently Secretary of the California Political Equality League, has sufficiently recovered from the new form of hysteria to make the following observations, which every womanly woman can read with profit:

"Women who have obtained the franchise are modern Franksteins, creatures of a political monster that has turned upon the sex with appalling results. Woman suffrage in California brought woman into too familiar contact with man. She has her rights now; she is equal to him, on his level. Where previously men were generally courteous, now they are rude. Woman suffragists will almost make one believe suffrage has been a great success. But if you analyze what they say you will find all the success they talk about is mere assertion."

Mr. Norman Hapgood, in a recent issue of Harper's Weekly, under the title of "The Dr. Cook in Politics," gives Gov. Wm. Sulzer, of New York, a severe grilling and possibly not without apparent justification, yet somehow or other we yet have a little faith in him and cherish the hope that he may be able to vindicate himself. It always hurts us to see a man in whom we have reposed confidence, go wrong.

Mr. Reader, if you have borrowed the paper you are now reading from your neighbor, why not become a regular subscriber for the ADVOCATE and get the news before it becomes a twice told tale?

The Willley lectures at the Christian Church are well worth hearing and if you are missing them you are suffering a distinct loss.

State Fair to Have an Elaborate Good Roads Exhibition.

The following letter from R. C. Terrell, State Commissioner of Public Roads, is of much interest to our readers and we trust many of them will witness this splendid exhibition:

Dear Editor:

I wish to call your attention to the splendid road exhibit, which will be put on at the State Fair at Louisville, September 15 to 20. The State Department of Public Roads, assisted by the National Department of Public Roads, Washington, D. C., and the State Fair Association, have decided to put on one of the largest and most complete road exhibits ever put on in the State of Kentucky.

The exhibit, that will be shown at Louisville, will consist of road models from the National Government, which will occupy about 1000 square feet of floor space and will show each and every character of road in different stages of completion, and models of the most modern and up-to-date machinery for building roads. There will also be types of culverts, sub-soil drainage and other features of road building. There will be a large exhibit of enlarged photographs, showing different characters of roads and their usage throughout the United States. This pictorial exhibit will occupy about 300 feet of wall space.

There will also be given daily an illustrated lecture on the Fair Grounds, in connection with this exhibit, by a representative of the National Department at Washington.

Mr. M. O. Eldridge, a representative of the National Department, and Mr. J. F. Grimes, a representative of the State Department, will be in charge of the exhibit and will be ready and willing to give any information, that those visiting the exhibit wish, concerning the exhibits or concerning road building in general.

Mr. Logan W. Page, Director of the Office of Public Roads, Washington, D. C., has assured me, through Mr. Vernon N. Peirce, Acting Director, that Mr. Eldridge will bring lantern slides sufficient to have an illustrated lecture each day. Those interested in road building should not fail to see this exhibit or hear these lectures.

Mr. J. W. Newman, Commissioner of Agriculture, has assured me of his willingness to assist in every way possible in making the road exhibit one of the best in the State.

The Annual Convention of the Kentucky Good Roads Association will be called to order by Mr. H. A. Sommers, Chairman, on Tuesday the 16th, 2 p. m., in the Convention Tent at the State Fair Grounds, and a number of good speakers will be present and important matters, relating to road building in the State, will be discussed.

I trust, through the columns of your paper, that you will co-operate with us in giving every one interested in road building an opportunity to hear these lectures and see these exhibits.

Yours truly,

R. C. Terrell,
Commissioner of Public Roads.

AMERICANS TO LEAVE MEXICAN TERRITORY

Embassy Representatives Ordered to Notify All Officials, Civil and Military, That They Will Be Held Responsible For Harm Or Injury

President Reads Message On Mexico to Congress--Reveals Proposals Rejected By Warring Government

President Wilson appeared in person before Congress Wednesday and laid bare to the world the details of this nation's efforts to bring about peace in Mexico; the facts concerning Huerta's rejection of the peace proposals and the policy to be pursued now by this Government.

The President announced the position of the United States to be as follows:

"No armed intervention. Strict neutrality, forbidding the exportation of arms or munitions of war of any kind from the United States to any part of the republic of Mexico."

Under circumstances to be the partisans of either party to the contest that now distracts Mexico, or constitute ourselves the virtual umpire between them."

"To urge all Americans to leave Mexico at once, and to assist them to get away in every way possible."

"To let every one in Mexico who assumes to exercise authority know that this Government shall vigilantly watch the fortunes of those Americans who cannot get away, and shall hold those responsible for their sufferings and losses to a definite reckoning."

"That can and will be made plain beyond the possibility of a misunderstanding," declared the President.

"Negotiations for the friendly mediation of the United States are open to resumption at any time upon either the initiative of this Government or of Mexico."

Accompanying the President's address was the reply of the Huerta Government rejecting the American proposals. It was written by Foreign Minister Gamboa. It suggested the following alternative policy for the United States:

"Reception of a Mexican Ambassador in Washington."

"That the United States send a new Ambassador to Mexico without restraints."

"Strict observance of the neutrality laws and see to it that no material or monetary assistance is given to the rebels."

"The unconditional recognition of the Huerta Government."

BREAKS PRECEDENT OF CENTURY.

The occasion had not been paralleled in more than a century. No other President since George Washington has appeared before Congress on a foreign affair. The Senate and House assembled in the House chamber, the Senators filing in two by two. As the President mounted the platform where Speaker Clark and Vice President Marshall were waiting the big chamber was hushed. Attired in a conventional frock coat suit, the President stood at the clerk's desk and read his address in the easy conversational tone for which he is noted. Scarcely a sound interrupted.

First, pointing out that it was his duty, "without reservation," to lay all the facts concerning the relations of the United States with Mexico, the President outlined what the United States had done, "as a friend and neighbor." Asserting that this section was "glad to call itself the friend of Mexico, and hoping for many future occasions to show that disinterested friendship," the President declared that "we shall prove to the Mexican people that we know how to serve them without first thinking how we shall serve ourselves."

DESCRIBES CONDITIONS IN MEXICO.

Describing Mexican conditions and the events that led up to the negotiations just concluded, President Wilson outlined how "war and disorder, devastation and confusion, seem to threaten to become the settled fortune of the distracted country." As friends, he said, this country could wait no longer for a solution of things in the sister republic.

READS INSTRUCTIONS TO LIND.

President Wilson read his instructions to John Lind.

"All America cries out for a settlement," read the note Mr. Lind bore to Mexico. "A satisfactory settlement seems to us to be conditioned on—

"An immediate cessation of fighting throughout Mexico, a definite armistice solemnly entered into, and scrupulously observed;

"Security given for an early and free election in which it will agree to take part;

"The consent of Gen. Huerta to bind himself not to be a candidate for election as President of the republic at this election, and;

"The agreement of all parties to abide by the results of the election and co-operation in the most loyal way in organizing and supporting the new administration."

Cover Crops.

Kentucky is a land largely made up of rolling, hilly, or even mountainous areas with most of its soil of a clay formation. These two conditions present a most favorable combination for washing and in nearly every part of the State one becomes impressed with the terrible damage done annually by the gullying of sloping areas caused by heavy rains. Corn is Kentucky's favorite crop, especially from the standpoint of area planted, and this crop after the thorough loosening of the soil from cultivation during the summer leaves the ground in perfect condition for washing and subsequent gullying. The most effective way of preventing this great damage to our farms is by never leaving these cultivated areas open to the heavy rains of fall and winter, this being prevented by providing some growing crop to cover the ground during these seasons.

The plant most in favor as a cover crop in this State is rye. This is because of the relative cheapness of seed, the lateness at which rye can be sown, the comparative certainty of getting a stand, its degree immunity to winter freezing, and the pasture which the crop furnishes before plowing under preparatory to the next year's crop.

Rye as a cover crop may be sown in the corn field any time from September fifteenth to October fifteenth, the earlier seeding often furnishing good late fall and winter pasture. It would be an excellent practice if each farmer would annually sow enough rye as a regular crop to provide sufficient seed for planting all areas on the farm which otherwise would be left naked during the winter.

Doubtless the only short coming of rye as a cover crop is that it does not feed upon nitrogen taken directly from the air and hence adds more of this valuable element of plant food to the soil. We must look to the so-called leguminous plants to perform this function. Hairy, or winter vetch perhaps best supplements this need, and can be successfully grown with rye by reducing the quantity of rye seed and sowing during September, preferably not later than the fifteenth of that month. Rye and vetch after mixing can be sown from the grain drill, in which case from two to three pecks of rye and about twenty pound of vetch per acre should be used. Winter vetch has a slim stem, leaflets somewhat resembling those of alfalfa in shape, and a blue clustering blossom which appear shortly before the ripening of the rye. Its reclining nature makes the rye of great benefit in its support for with its tendrils the vetch climbs nearly to the full height of the rye. The feeding value of vetch is excellent and more Kentucky farmers should test its merit as a cover crop, with rye.

TWO THOUSAND DOLLAR STAKE

Saddle Horse Contest Big Feature at Kentucky State Fair.

SEVENTEEN ARE ENTERED

Blue-Blooded Equine Monarchs Will Contest For Rich Prizes at the Big Show in September—Many New Animals Will Be Shown For First Time to Appreciative Blue Grass Crowds.

Seventeen royally bred "Monarchs of the Equine World" are to be pitted against each other in the great $2,000 Commissioned of Agriculture stake for five-gaited saddle horses, which will be the hammer event of the Kentucky State Fair, to be held at Louisville Sept. 15-20, according to the list of entries which closed on July 1. The premium is the highest ever offered in a contest of this kind and has attracted the most important owners and exhibitors of the country. The $2,000 stake is divided into seven different prizes, and one of the conditions of the contest being that the entry money for all over 15 contests shall be added to the first premium, makes this enticing prize figure up to $680. The honor of being "in the money" at all in this stake is one coveted by the leading owners and exhibitors of blue-blooded stock in the country, and the struggle for supremacy among the 17 is destined to be a formidable one.

The roster as it stands for 1912 includes P. W. Ray & Son of Bowling Green, Ky., who will probably fight for first prize with Black Whirlwind, a contestant who is truly a "dark horse," being totally unknown to the frequenters, but who is reputed as formidable as his name. Mat S. Cohen of Lexington, Ky., will very likely enter the celebrated Mary Vandell Fox, who took third prize last year for her proud owner, Mrs. Richard Powers of Danville, Ky.

J. T. Collier & Son of North Middletown, Ky., will enter a horse never shown heretofore.

Matlack & Shropshire of Winchester, Ky., have taken two entries and will likely make a strong bid for first honor with Hazel Dawn, the beautiful winner of the 1912 prize, and the great gelding Jack Barrymore.

Powhatan Woodridge, Pewee Valley, Ky., has also doubled his chances, and it is surmised that he will enter a very fine saddle mare and his celebrated Richelieu King.

W. S. Nicol, Noyburn, Ky., will come in with an unknown, as will Thurman & Peters of Springfield, Ky.

R. F. Moreland, Lexington, Ky., will more than likely choose as his entry a full brother of the celebrated Nickel Plate, and Ball Brothers of Versailles have several likely prospects, among the number being the great Saddle Macy.

James Green of Louisville, Ky., will show the bay stallion Happy Chief, one of the celebrated sons of Bourbon Chief.

H. C. Barham, Milan, Tenn., promises to uncover a horse new to the wisecracks of the ring.

The entry of A. G. Jones, North Middletown, Ky., has not yet been named, but it is supposed he will show either the Princess V or Marvel King, brother of the noted stallion Bourbon King.

Miss Lula Long of Longview Farm, Lees Summit, Mo., has entered My Major Dare, the splendid $10,000 beauty, which she purchased last year after he won the fifth premium in the 1912 Kentucky State Fair stakes.

Allen R. Eiden of Burgin, Ky., will in all probability show a promising daughter of Bohemian King, and General John B. Castleman of Louisville, either his famous Carolina or Marguerita.

HEALTH CONTEST AT FAIR

Will Show What Perfect Blue Grass Baby Should Be Like.

A new feature announced for the coming Kentucky State Fair is the baby health contest, and already it has attracted a great deal of attention. This contest is modeled after those which have been so successful in other states, notably Iowa. The contest in this state was first inaugurated in 1911 by the Iowa branch of the National Congress of Mothers, with Mrs. Mary P. Wallis in charge. Mrs. Wallis was superintendent and was assisted by the following judges: Dr. Margaret V. Clark, Waterloo; Dr. V. E. Powell, Red Oak; Dr. Agnes Ziehlberger, Sioux City; Dr. Kate Harpel, Boone; Dr. Lenna Meanes, Des Moines; Dr. Sophie Hixie, Scott, Des Moines; Miss Katherine Lehart, Des Moines; Miss Scharr, Des Moines.

The Kentucky Federation of Women's clubs has been asked to co-operate with the Kentucky State Fair and the chairman of their health department, Mrs. Lavin Riker, associated with Mrs. George Grant and Mrs. Herbert Ottenheimer of the health committee, will act in an advisory capacity.

Uniformity is absolutely essential in the examination and marking of the children in order to secure any results of value in a nation-wide movement. The score card, so long and universally used, is such a basis for uniformity that its exclusive use is very important in this work and it has accordingly been adopted by Kentucky.

The prizes will be of comparatively small amount or value. To offer valuable prizes, or to permit such offers by newspaper, baby food manufacturers, photographers or others interested in advertising themselves or their business, would excite the enmity of parents, cause a scramble for gain instead of a search for knowledge, and endanger and tend to commercialize the whole movement.

As these contests promise to be a great world-wide movement and productive of great good to humanity, they must not be allowed to become special shows, where professional babies of abnormal development may compete for large prizes for the benefit of some advertising or gainful scheme.

The babies' health contest at the coming Kentucky State Fair will be in charge of Mrs. John L. Woodbury of Louisville, who will be glad to answer all inquiries regarding the work.

Remember the dates of the Kentucky State Fair, Sept. 15-20.

ASKS SCHOOL OF ADJECTIVES

College Education Fails to Improve Vocabulary of Women, Says Writer.

Surely there must be something the matter with a vocabulary of our young people, says Life, when they have to depend so exclusively upon such words as "Sure!" "Dandy!" and "Wonderful!" to express their principal emotions. What is most extraordinary about all this is that the vocabulary of young women does not seem to be improved by a college career. One would think that it would be quite impossible to study Latin and French and German, literature and philosophy for a number of years (even though studied in the most superficial manner) without acquiring enough variety of words to carry one through any common experience. The method of studying English in our schools is entirely wrong. There should be classes in adjectives.

SYRIA GIVES US LICORICE

With the Exception of the Damascus Output, the Whole Trade is in Hands of One Firm.

Very few people, says Wide World Magazine, have any idea where the familiar licorice root comes from. As a matter of fact, the bulk of it hails from Syria. Here it is gathered and piled into great stacks, where it remains until it is thoroughly dry. It is then taken to the factory to undergo certain processes. The finished product is used for flavoring confectionery and beer, as well as entering into the makeup of many kinds of tobacco. Some idea of the extent of the industry may be gathered when it is stated that, on an average, 8,000 tons of dry licorice root is shipped from Aleppo annually, while Bagdad yields another 6,000 tons, Antioch 4,000, and Damascus 500 tons. With the exception of the Damascus output, the whole trade is in the hands of a single firm.

PART HE OMITTED.

The reader was refusing a play. "My dear man," he said to the author, "it is plain you don't understand modern, up-to-date construction. Why, in this play, Mr. Hamlet, as the star, wouldn't be off the stage five minutes from the first act to the last." "But," faltered the young playwright, "I thought the stars all liked that." "No, no," said the reader; "not your up-to-date stars; not your twentieth-century actor-managers. No, no, young man. You must always leave your modern actor-manager at least fifteen minutes in the second act to go round to the box office and watch the money being counted."

BAD FOR ANIMALS AND PLANTS.

The injury to plants and animals of the great deposits of soot washed down from the air of factory towns has been traced by Dr. R. C. Benner chiefly to the tar and free acid, both of which are corrosive, while the adhesiveness of the tar prevents plant transpiration.

Tree rings in a Scotch fir diminished at once after the erection of a factory near, and vegetables in smoky towns showed reduced growth. Lessened sunlight and increased fog are injurious atmospheric conditions.

WAYSIDE PHILOSOPHY.

"Easy street must be a nice street to live on," remarked the hobo. "That's nothing to me," declared the second wayfarer. "I never found that the alley back of it provided anything extra in the way of pickings."

WHERE WE WIN.

"In China the oath of brotherhood is taken by breaking a cup." "If that worked in this country, our cook would be sealed to us for life."

HIRED AND FIRED.

Mrs. Exe—Did you try that new girl you heard of?
Mrs. Wye—Try her? Why, she tried me beyond all endurance.

TOO LATE.

"There was one sport the Roman mobs at the Coliseum missed." "What was that?" "Killing baseball umpires."

A FACER.

He (making poor headway)—Will nothing induce you to change your mind and marry?
She—Another man might

JUST A LITTLE FELLOW.

Just a little fellow,
When no other friends I see;
Just a little fellow
Who is a friend to me!
He sets the world to music,
All the rivers sing to sea
That sweet little fellow
Who is a friend to me!

Just a little fellow
Who, when the world goes ill,
Twines his arms around me
And says, "I love you still!"
And if at last no welcome
In another world may be,
That sweet little fellow
Has made earth a heaven to me!

PREWITT REUNION IS HELD AT OIL SPRINGS

About a Hundred and Fifty Members of the Family and Guests Present.

The tenth annual reunion of the descendants of James and Nelson Prewitt took place at Oil Springs Thursday with about one hundred and fifty members of the family and guests present. They were principally from the counties of Clark and Montgomery. Among the names represented are: Prewitt, VanMeter, Gay, Chenault, Goff, Thompson, Jones and Kennedy. The feature of this meeting was the first appearance in the family of the Thompson twins, five weeks old, who held open house and welcomed the various representatives with smiles and open arms.

An observer would be struck with the force and character of these scions of pure American blood. The large number of young people gives promise of many more reunions. Surely Kentucky should be proud that it is made up of families and groups who show so much of the sterling and worthy character of the higher types of manhood and womanhood, and exhibit in their features and carriage so much intelligence and force. Truly the Commonwealth will be the nurture spot of the future leaders of American citizenship as it has been of the former ones.

The historian of the Prewitt family, Mrs. Jones, will shortly publish an account of the members as far as known from their earliest settlement in Augusta and Caroline counties, in Virginia, and their subsequent migration to Kentucky. Following is a list of those present:
